

Some advice I would like to give during the quarantine read a book

fitness training at home dedicate your time to cooking cakes or dishes watching a TV series or a movie on Netflix listen and download new songs by making playlists sharing activities with your family such as playing cards making video calls to your friends and your family plan goals you want to achieve