

To face deforestation and bushfires

Promote the creation of green areas in every school (or within Jesuit net)

About 2,800 primary schools in Europe

To verify the positive trend and the actual effectiveness of the measures taken until today

A comparison between the promises made by governments and industry, and the actual world data

